Arts Alive 2009

Re:(Purpose)

April 23–May 24, 2009

Reception: April 23, 5–7 p.m.

Students, family members, teachers and the public are invited to attend the opening reception for Arts Alive 2009 Re:(Purpose) at the Burnaby Art Gallery.

Working with the theme of Re:(Purpose), Burnaby elementary students have recycled and reused all kinds of fascinating materials to create vibrant and imaginative artwork for this bi-annual K-7 exhibition. Their work explores the idea that art has a message, purpose or function. Many students chose to focus on environmental topics. Featured within the show are sculptural and musical creations, drawings, paintings and videos. This exhibition is presented in partnership with Burnaby School District #41.

In the B.A.G. – free family Sunday program.
Sunday, April 26, every half hour from 1-3:30 p.m.
No pre-registration is required.

The Burnaby Art Gallery gratefully acknowledges the funding support provided by the City of Burnaby, Burnaby School District #41 and the British Columbia Arts Council.
