Of the 33 requests that asked the NEB for a significant action:

80% of Kinder Morgan's requests were granted. None were entirely denied.

By contrast, 89% of those from intervenors were denied -- only 11% granted.

Of the 2,501 questions for which citizens, businesses and cities felt they had received inadequate responses in the first round of intervenor requests, the NEB ordered that Kinder Morgan provide adequate responses for only 115 – 4.5%. Ninety-six per cent of those questions remain unanswered.
