

HOMELESSNESS

How many are at risk?

Number of households at risk of homelessness:

6,620

In Metro Vancouver, households in 'core housing need' who are spending at least half of their income on housing are considered to be at risk of homelessness.
Source: Metro Vancouver Housing Book, 2019, Table 3.3.

This includes:

Couples without children:	1,085
Couples with children:	1,505
Single-parent families:	1,060
Single people:	2,675
Other:	295

27%

of Burnaby households (24,880) have an annual income of less than $35,000

Source: Metro Vancouver Housing Data Book, 2019 (Table 1.4)

6%

of owner households are at risk of homelessness

12%

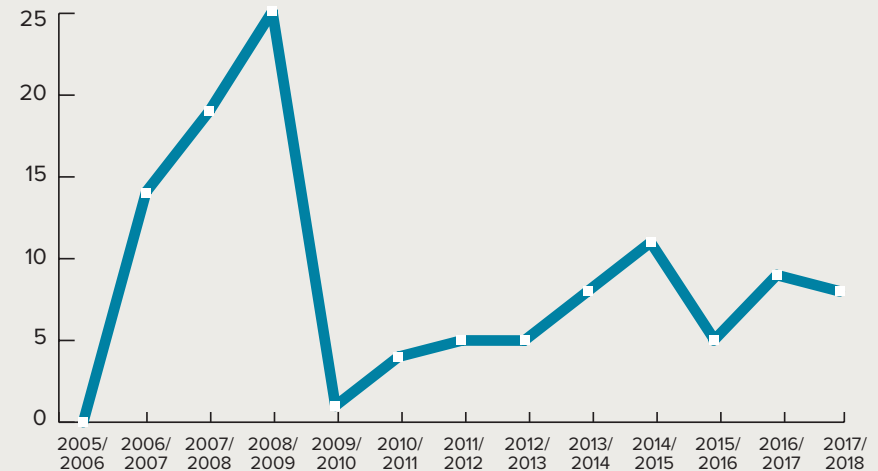

of renter households are at risk of homelessness

Source: Metro Vancouver Housing Data Book, 2019 (Table 3.2)

Burnaby's Extreme Weather Shelter

Average number of people per night, 2005-2018

Total homeless counted (2017) :

69

Unsheltered:

49

Sheltered:

20

Source: Metro Vancouver, 2017 Homeless count

The City opened 4 warming shelters in December 2018. They have provided shelter for 17 people, on average, per night.

Source: City of Burnaby Warming Shelters, Dec-Jan 2019