

See Something, Say Something

Metro Vancouver Transit Police (MVTP) is committed to keeping passengers safe while on transit - but there are lots of things you can do to help. Here are some useful tips to help you, and your belongings, stay safe while on the go:

- Plan your route to avoid missed connections and long waits
- Use the Designated Waiting Areas available on all Skytrain platforms
- Make sure you are aware of the safety features throughout the transit system
- Be alert in your surroundings and aware of the people around you
- Keep your belongings close at all times
- Don't let strangers use your cell phone

The multi-lingual See Something, Say Something campaign encourages everyone that rides transit (bus and train) to tell Transit Police about crime and disorder when we see it. To reach Transit Police you can:

- Call 604-515-8300
- Text 87.77.77
- In an emergency or if in doubt call 911

If you don't have a phone or can't remember the number to call pick up the information phone at any station and ask to be transferred to the MVTP dispatch.

For more information about maximizing your safety on transit, visit www.transitpolice.bc.ca to learn about the MVTP app for iPhone and Android or sign up for the newsletter and follow MVTP on Twitter at @transitpolice.
