BAG Outreach Workshops

FOREST FOR THE TREES
Grades K-7 | Monday-Friday | September 14, 2026-June 25, 2027
Curriculum Tie-ins: Art Education, Ecology, Indigenous Art
Explore the world of landscape-inspired artwork through this engaging program. Using the forms of trees, waterways and mountains, students discuss ideas of landscape and place. Building on these ideas, participants use techniques of layering, colour mixing and collage to create a 'forest' of trees.

COAST SALISH CONTEMPORARY
Grades 2-7 | Monday-Friday | September 14, 2026-June 25, 2027
Curriculum Tie-ins: Indigenous Art, Ecology/Environment, Art Education
Referencing works from the City's Permanent Collection, participants explore the progression of themes and techniques in contemporary Coast Salish art. Discussions on appropriation and use of copyrighted work will be discussed within this program. Students will finish the workshop by creating their own collagraph print.

CREATVE COMMUNITIES
Grades 2-7 | Monday-Friday | September 14, 2026-June 25, 2027
Curriculum Tie-ins: Art Education, Social Studies, Geography, Math, Design, STEAM
Explore community, local identity, and common ground through the lens of city park planning. This program uses works from City of Burnaby's Permanent Art Collection, for students to collaboratively design and construct their own mini urban green space.

TANTALIZING TESSELLATIONS: EXPLORING THE WORK OF DYLAN THOMAS
Grades 2-7 | Monday-Friday | September 14, 2026-June 25, 2027
Curriculum Tie-ins: Art Education, Earth Science, Math, Indigenous Art, STEAM
Discover the interwoven worlds of math and art. Using tessellations as a foundation, each workshop explores the pattern making and mathematical elements of design. Workshops examine the artwork of Coast Salish contemporary artist Dylan Thomas and how he has connected math and geometry to his art practice.

COASTAL WATERS
Grades K-7 | Monday-Friday | September 14, 2026-June 25, 2027
Curriculum Tie-ins: Art Education, Earth Science, Indigenous Art
Join us in exploring the complexity of the BC coastline. Students are immersed in ideas of interconnection, ecosystems, water cycles and shoreline wildlife, inspired by works from City of Burnaby's Permanent Collection. Using watercolour, drawing, and collage, students develop individual mixed-media works.
