

CLAYS AVAILABLE

2025-2026

Recycled Clay

Our studio blend can vary in colour and texture depending on what we are recycling. It generally looks like Grey Stoneware.

C-1

$24.00

$26.88 after tax

Grey Stoneware

This is a versatile clay for throwing and handbuilding, dynamic in a variety of atmospheric firings. Best choice for beginners! Plainsman H550

C-2

$29.13

$32.63 after tax

Red Stoneware

This rich, deep red/brown clay is plastic with a sandy texture. It displays a mottled surface with iron specks that bleed through glaze. Plainsman H440

C-2

$29.13

$32.63 after tax

White Stoneware

This clay is a lighter option to grey stoneware that yields brighter glaze results. Recommended for intermediate and advanced patrons. Laguna B-Mix ^10

C-3

$46.07

$51.60 after tax

Sculpture & Raku

This light coloured clay body is good for handbuilding, sculpture and raku. It remains porous after firing and will not hold liquids. Not suitable for functional work. Laguna WSO

C-3

$46.07

$51.60 after tax

Standard Porcelain

This Grolleg porcelain is a smooth and slick fine grained clay that can be translucent when thin. Plainsman P700

C-4

$58.61

$65.64 after tax

Specialized Porcelain

This Grolleg porcelain is similar to our Standard Porcelain, but more plastic to work with. It can be translucent when thin. Aardvark Clay's Coleman Porcelain

C-5

$70.03

$78.43 after tax

Clay cost per bag includes firing, freight and handling