BAG Seniors Outreach Workshop

THE ARTIST'S GARDEN

Monday-Friday | 1.5 hours | maximum 12 participants

Making art more accessible to seniors, The Artist's Garden delivers the gallery experience to individuals in independent, assisted, and long-term care settings. Bridging art appreciation with hands-on creation, this program fostering creativity, connection, and a deeper understanding of how artistic choices shape emotion and meaning. Rooted in the theme of gardens as spaces of memory and personal reflection, the activity encourages participants to explore their inner landscapes and translate their experiences into visual expression.

- If participant numbers exceed 12, multiple workshops can be booked back to back. Please select above how many workshops are needed
- Our instructor is happy to adapt the activity & instructions to suit the needs & abilities of participants
- We do not provide tablecloths or aprons; please advise participants not to wear favourite clothing as the process could be messy
- Participants will each need table space. If possible, please provide one extra table for the instructor to set up printing & materials
